HONOR TO OUR WORKMEN

Whom shall we call our heroes,
To whom our praises sing?
The pampered child of fortune,
The third lord of kings?
They live by other's labor—
Take all and nothing give;
The noblest type of manhood,
Are those who work to live.
Then honor to our workmen,
Our hardy sons of toil—
The heroes of the workshop
And monarchs of the soil.

Who spins the earth with iron
And rears the palace dome?
Who creates for the rich man
The comforts of his home?
Is't he the patient toiler—
All honor to him then!
The true wealth of the nation
Is in his working men.

For many barren ages
Earth hid her treasures deep,
And all her giant forces
Seemed bound as in a sleep;
Then Labor's avenging chorus,
Broke on the startled air,
And lo! the earth in rapture
Laid all her riches bare.

'Tis toil that over nature
Gives man his proud control,
And purifies and hallows
The temples of his soul.
It scatters foul diseases,
With all the ghastly train;
Puts iron in the muscle,
And crystal in the brain!

The Grand Almighty Builder,
Who fashioned out the earth,
Hath stamped his seal of honor
On Labor from his birth.
In every angled tower
That blossoms from the sod,
Behold the Master-touches,
The handiwork of God.

A LADY'S OPINION OF A LADY'S MAN.
—Mrs. Stephens, in her Monthly Magazine, gives a certain class of men, the like of whom are seen in every community, the benefit of her opinion as follows:

"Our own private opinion of a lady's man is that he is thoroughly contemptible—a sort of a life hardly worth thinking about—a handful of foam drifting over the wine of life, something not altogether unpleasant to the fancy, but of no earthly use. A woman of sense would as soon be put to sea in a man-of-war made of shingles, or take up her residence in a card house, as dream of attaching herself to a lady-killer. Women worth the name are seldom deceived into thinking a lady's man the choicest specimen of her sex. Whatever their ignorance may be, womanly intuition must tell them that the men who live for a great object, and whose spirits are so firmly knit that they are able to encounter the storms of life—men whose depths and warmth of soul feeling resemble the current of some mighty river, and not the bubbles on its surface, who, if they love, are never smitten by mere beauty of form and features—that these men are more worthy even of occupying their thoughts in idle moments than the fops and men about town with whose attention they amuse themselves. If we were to tell him this he would only laugh; he has no price about him, although full of vanity; and it matters not to him what we broadly affirm or quietly insinuate. Soft and delicate though he is, he is as impervious to ridicule as a hod carrier, and as regardless of honest contempt as a city alderman. Were you to hand him this article, he would take it to some social party, and read it aloud in the most mellifluous voice, as an homage to his own attraction."

WOMAN.—Look at the career of a man as he passes through the world; at a man visited by misfortune! How often he is left by his fellow men to sink under the weight of his afflictions, unheeded and alone! One friend of his own sex forgets him, another abandons him, a third, perhaps, betrays him; but woman, faithful woman, follows him in his affliction; she braves the changes of feelings; of temper, embittered by the disappointment of the world, with the highest of all virtue; in resigning patience ministers to his wants, even when her own are hard and pressing; she weeps with him for his sorrow, in his distress, and is the first to catch or reflect a ray of joy, should but one light up his countenance in the midst of his sufferings; and she never leaves him in his misery while there remains one act of love, duty or compassion to be performed. And at last when life and death come together, she follows him to the tomb with an ardor of affection which death itself cannot destroy.

Ristori will come to Kentucky in February.

Spare Moments.

A lean, awkward boy came one morning to the door of the principal of a celebrated school in England, and asked to see him. The servant looked at his shabby clothes, and taking him to be a beggar, sent him round to the kitchen. The boy did as he was told, and soon appeared at the back door.
"I should like to see Dr.," said he. "You want a breakfast, more like," said the servant, "and I can give you that without troubling him." "Thank you," said the boy; "I have no objection to a bit of bread, but I should like to see Dr.—if he can see me." "Some old clothes, may be you want," said the servant, again looking at the boys patched trousers. "I expect he has none to spare, he gives them all away," and without minding the boy's request, she went about her work.
"Can I see Dr.," asked the boy again, after eating his bread and butter. "Well, he's in the library, if he must be spoken to; but he does like some time to himself," said the girl in a peevish tone. She seemed to think it very foolish to admit such an ill-looking lad into the doctor's presence, however, she wiped her hands and told them to follow her, she said, "Here's somebody, sir, who much wishes to see you, and so I let him in."

We do not know how the boy introduced himself, or how he opened his business; but we know that after a while the principal laid aside the book he was reading, took up some Greek books, and began to examine the new comer. The examination lasted some time. Every question which the doctor asked was readily answered. "You certainly do well," said the principal, looking at the boy from head to foot over his spectacles. "Well, my boy, where did you pick up so much learning?"

"In my spare moments," answered the boy. Here was a poor, hard-working boy, with few chances for schooling, yet nearly fitted for college by simply improving his spare moments.

Leap Year.

The ladies must not forget that this is leap year, and that the peculiar privileges of leap year continue throughout the year 1868. All the etiquette of the sexes is reversed. It ladies wish to walk or ride with gentlemen, to dance at balls, or escort them home from parties, to attend church, concerts, or treat them to ice cream, they have the right to ask, or rather command everything, for it is not to be supposed that a refusal in such a case is within the bounds of possibility. But the greatest and most important privileges of leap year must not be forgotten. There are thousands of bashful bachelors, old and young, who look hopefully to leap year, and are waiting to be asked. They are anxious to have some fair one to do what they will never have the courage to do themselves—pop the question. They want to get married, but lack the courage to say so. Nothing but leap year can save them from the most gloomy and horrible fate. The ladies must take pity on these forlorn, buttonless wretches, and not forget that, if they go unmarried another three years, it will be theirs to answer for. Common coquetry and setting of caps won't do. It is a right up and down business, and the old blades not only expect to be asked, but are waiting for it with the greatest anxiety and impatience. If there are any bachelors left in this community on the first of January, 1869, it is easy to see whose fault it will be.

A young man was lately sentenced to the penitentiary for four years. When he was about to be sentenced he stated publicly that his downward course began in disobedience to his parents—that he thought he knew as much of the world as his father did, and needed not his aid or advice, but that as soon as he had turned his back upon his home, then temptations came around him, like a drove of hyenas, and hurried him on to ruin. There is no place so safe and happy as a good home.

Stick to your trade boys, and learn how to work, if you wish to be truly independent. There is a no more pitiable sight than a half-learned mechanic applying for work. He is always at the foot of the hill, and labor as he may, unless he has attained the years of his majority, he will never be perfect, and can calculate on poverty as his portion with a good deal of safety.

Martingale Fees.

A clergyman rarely looks at a marriage fee when it is handed to him, but quietly slips it into his pocket, and knows not the amount until on reaching home he passes it over to his wife—to whom it is, customarily given, and to whom it properly belongs. Hence arise mistakes, sometimes pleasant and sometimes unpleasant. For example: "Rev. D. M., married a sailor, who, as he was leaving the house, put a coin in his hand. It proved to be an old fashioned copper cent. The doctor thought that it was rather queer and an exception to the proverbial generosity of seamen, but soon dismissed the subject from his mind. Three years elapsed, when his door bell rung one morning and the identical sailor appeared with a chest of tea, a bag of coffee and some tropical fruits—worth in the aggregate about twenty dollars. "You remember marrying me," said he, "and you remember praying that Betsy would make me a good wife. I knew not whether your prayer would be heard, or whether I had or had not made a good bargain. But it was heard. Betsy is a first-rate girl; has been true to me; and now returning from a long and prosperous voyage, I have brought a marriage fee, which I want you to accept," which the doctor failed not to do, with hearty thanks to the giver.
Not long since a gentleman, just before the marriage of his daughter, made out a couple of checks, one of a few thousand, which he designed to give his child as he bade her goodbye, and another to hand to the clergyman after the ceremony, of seventy-five dollars. In some way the checks were misplaced and got into the wrong hands. The daughter was no less surprised than the good minister; but he happened to be an honest man and the mistake was rectified.

A "Growing Item."

A woman in Chicago has been arrested for smuggling tea in her stockings.—Express.
In North Carolina the women carry nails in their stockings.—Raleigh Progress.
Nothing wonderful. The ladies of Forsyth carry calves in their stockings.—Observer.
And one of our ladies carries her corns in hers.—Rome Commercial.

The ladies in this vicinity who sympathize with Andy Johnson in his fight with the Radicals, carry V-tees in their stockings, which are seldom passed over their heads.—Virginia Sun.

Down this way some of them not only carry calves in their stockings, but also bran to fatten them.—Mexico Mes.

Almost all the ladies hereabouts carry Bunyan's works in their stockings. We consider that a sock-dollager.—Union Sen.

We'll take "stock-in" the foregoing. Our ladies have been known to place delicate cords and happiest veins in theirs, while on the light fantastic toe. Bin. Rep.

Some of our factory girls carry holes in theirs, principally, and don't seem to care a darn either.—Man. Union.

Oh sho! It is utterly bootless to tell such yarns. We can do a bigger feat every day in the week, and not get badly jammed in the operation.

BEAT IT, WHO CAN!—Mr. Thomas Sorber recently made a bet of $20 with Mr. Reily, of the Butler House in this city, that he could cut eight acres of wheat with a cradle between sunrise and sunset. Last Friday was the day appointed for the trial, and the farm of Mr. Sorber, the place chosen. The announcement that such a bet had been made, drew together a number of farmers, and side bets prevailed largely among the spectators upon the result. He actually cut nine instead of eight acres, and completed the day's labor nearly an hour before sun down. The ground was measured by our county surveyor. The field of wheat was an average yield. There are men here who offer to bet that he can cut ten acres in a day. The question is who will take up the glove. To those in other sections of the country we would say, come here when you are in search of harvest hands. We have plenty of farmers here who are not much behind Mr. Sorber, though a majority of them are willing to acknowledge him as their leader in the field.—Butler, Ohio, Paper.

LYON'S PERIODICAL DROPS!
The Great Female Remedy for Irregularities!!
I HAVE tested these Drops in my own practice, over ten years, and do not hesitate to say, that nothing has yet been developed by medical research, that acts so powerfully, positively and harmlessly, in cases of female irregularity, as does this medicine. In all recent cases it never fails, while thousands who have been long sufferers, are indebted to it for the boon of health today.
Although so powerful and positive, they perfectly harmless, and may be used at all times, except when specially forbidden in the directions.
They have been extensively employed by eminent physicians in France and England, as well as in my own practice, over ten years, and I have yet to hear of the first instance of failure. I could give you testimonials of their efficacy from ladies all over the Northern and North Western States, were they not in their native private. Over 100,000 bottles have been sold the last year, and I hope as many more will be sold before the year closes.
I am well aware that a remedy so potent to remove obstructions, may be used for bad purposes, but trust that when one bottle is used, ten may fill into the hands of really useful sufferers.
To all who suffer from any irregularity; painful, difficult, excessive, offensive or obstructed menstruation, Leucorrhoea, or the train of diseases that follow, I would say, try a bottle of Dr. Lyon's French Periodical Drops. Being a mild preparation, their action is more direct and positive than any pills or powders. Explicit directions, bearing my facsimile accompany each bottle.
They may be obtained of nearly every druggist in the country, or by enclosing the price to C. G. Clark & Co., New Haven, Ct. General agents for the United States and Canada.

Presiding Physician, New Haven, Ct.
Price $1.50 per Bottle. Monthly

POLANDS MAGIC BILIOUS POWDERS!!!
THE PREPARATION IS THE DISCOVERY of the Rev. J. W. Poland, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church in Louisville, Ky., and a man deeply beloved by that denomination throughout New England. He was obliged to leave the pulpit and study medicine to save his own life, and his Magic Powders are one of the most wonderful discoveries of modern times. It is the great Liver and Bilious remedy, which completely throws in the shade all other remedies in medicine, and it affords him much gratification that they receive the unanimous approbation of all who have tested them. The Magic Bilious Powders are a positive cure for Liver Complaint, in its most aggravated form, and an immediate corrector of all Bilious derangements. Excellent for headache, constipation, pimples, blotches, a sallow skin, drowsiness, dizziness, heartburn, palpitation, and a most wonderful cure and preventive for Fever and Ague. [We advise all who are troubled with this fearful malady to always keep the Powders on hand for immediate use.]
Here are a few important particulars:
1st.—They are the Great Specific for all Bilious Affections.
2d.—They are the only known remedy that will cure Liver Complaint.
3d.—They are the only known remedy that will cure Constipation.
4th.—The Powders are so thorough in their operation that one package will be all that the majority of those using them will require to effect a cure.
5th.—They are a mild and pleasant yet the most efficient cathartic known.
6th.—They are the cheapest and best medicine extant, as they can be sent by mail to any part of the world for the price, 50 cents.
Circulars, containing certificates, information, &c., sent to any part of the world free of charge.

J. J. GOOD, GUNSMITHING.
AND DEALER IN
Guns, Pistols, and all kinds of Pistol Cartridges. Superior Gun Powder, Powder Flasks, Shot Bags, and all kinds of sporting apparatus.
Also a large assortment of Keys on hand, and fitted to suit locks of all kinds.
ALSO the exclusive right of Harrison county, for the sale of the Singer Sewing Machine.

Family Sewing Machine,
This machine is without a superior in the world. It runs as fast and easy and with as little noise as any first class machine in market. It will sew from the coarsest leather to the finest bank bill, and makes every stitch perfect. It runs, feels, looks, and works like a clock, and is adapted to every variety of work. It is strong, compact and durable, and will last twenty years, for ordinary family sewing, if not broken by accident or carelessness. But it is useless to parade a long list of the merits of this machine before the public, as the poorest mechanics furnish them in the greatest abundance. All can try this machine by calling on the agent and it will proclaim its own merits.
